

AN ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE FAUQUIER COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
WAS HELD MARCH 15, 2005 AT 7:00 P.M. IN WARRENTON, VIRGINIA

P R E S E N T Mr. Raymond E. Graham, Chairman; Mr. Harry F. Atherton Vice Chairman; Mr. Richard W. Robison; Mr. Chester W. Stribling; Mr.
William G. Downey; Paul S. McCulla, County Administrator; Kevin
Burke, Acting County Attorney

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Mr. McCulla announced the schedule of upcoming Board of Supervisors' work session dates, as follows:

Board Budget Joint Work Session with School Board
Warren Green Building 1st Floor Conference Room
10 Hotel Street • Warrenton, VA 20186
March 16, 2005 • 4:00 p.m.

Board Budget Work Session
Warren Green Building 1st Floor Meeting Room
10 Hotel Street • Warrenton, VA 20186
March 17, 2005 • 4:00 p.m.

Board Budget Work Session
Warren Green Building 1st Floor Meeting Room
10 Hotel Street • Warrenton, VA 20186
March 31, 2005 • 4:00 p.m.

Adoption of FY 2006 Budget, Tax Rate and (tentatively) Capital Improvements Plan
Warren Green Building 1st Floor Meeting Room
10 Hotel Street • Warrenton, VA 20186
March 31, 2005 • 5:30 p.m.

FISCAL YEAR 2006 BUDGET, CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PLAN AND TAX RATES

A public hearing was held to consider the proposed Fiscal Year 2006 Budget, Capital Improvements Plan and Tax Rates.

Ginger Hilleary, Center District, spoke in support of the Literacy Volunteers program;

Kitty Smith, Marshall District, spoke in support of the Purchase of Development Rights Program, and spoke in support of public access to the Rappahannock River through the Rappahannock Landing subdivision in Remington;

David deGive, Marshall District, spoke in favor of the Purchase of Development Rights Program;

Jolly deGive, Marshall District, spoke on behalf of the Piedmont Environmental Council (PEC) in favor of Purchase the Purchase of Development Rights Program, and asked for the County to consider partnering with PEC to purchase additional property at the Rappahannock Landing subdivision to increase public access to the Rappahannock River in Remington;

Julie Lynch, Scott District, spoke in favor of the Piedmont Dispute Resolution Center;

Jon Trevathan, Marshall District, spoke in favor of the Piedmont Dispute Resolution Center;

Dianne Banker, Cedar Run District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget, and spoke in support of the school clinic attendants program;

Sally Murray, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Nancy Griffin-Bonnaire, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Odetta Dietz, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Ron Gheen, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget and in support of Fauquier Education Association;

Tom Marable, Marshall District, President of the Volunteer Fire and Rescue Association, spoke in support of Fire and Rescue and the Warrenton-Fauquier Joint Communications Center, however, spoke in opposition to a proposed fee for emergency medical services;

Margaret Wise, Marshall District, spoke in favor of the Purchase of Development Rights Program;

Ben McCartney, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Torii Kerns (magisterial district unnamed), spoke in support of the school nurses program;

Mary Schlegel, Marshall District, on behalf of the School Health Advisory Board, spoke in favor of the School Board budget, and in support of the school clinics personnel;

Stan Edmister, Lee District, asked the Board to consider capital budget reallocation to be used as a cash match for the Piedmont Environmental Council and create a public-private partnership in the purchase of lots from Rappahannock Landing subdivision in Remington to allow expanded public river access and a Civil War tourist attraction;

Sharon McCamy, Lee District, spoke in support of a public-private partnership for Rappahannock River access and for historic preservation;

Robert Dunleavy, Scott District, spoke in favor of the Purchase of Development Rights Program, as well as public safety funding;

Rita Morrison, Lee District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Frank Ott, Lee District, spoke in opposition to the School Board budget, and asked the Board to reduce the tax rate;

Dana Hansson, Scott District, spoke in support of the school bond referendum and asked the Board to incorporate bond funding with the current School Board budget;

Casey Lynn Finnerty, Center District, spoke in support of the School Board budget, and in favor of funding unfunded school sports programs;

Maxwell Bowen, Lee District, spoke in support of the school bond referendum and a third high school on Route 605;

Eric Eppley, Scott District, spoke in favor of School Board funding and in support of the school clinic attendants program;

Hope Porter, Marshall District, spoke in support of the Purchase of Development Rights program;

Jo Ann Ros, Center District, spoke in support of the School Board budget;

Mary Ellen Wilson, Center District, spoke in support of the School Board budget;

Sheryl Wolfe, Lee District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Yak Lubowsky, Center District, spoke in support of the Purchase of Development Rights program, and also in favor of the school bond referendum, however, urged the Board to reconsider the size and location of the new school;

Christine Delfelt, Center District, spoke in support of the School Board budget;

Sally Harmon, Center District, spoke in support of the School Board budget;

Don Benson, Lee District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget, and in support of the school clinic attendants program;

Nancy Sheffield, Scott District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget;

Larry Kovalik, Center District, spoke in favor of the School Board budget, and spoke in support of the Purchase of Development Rights program; and

Sue Scheer, Cedar Run District, spoke in support of the Purchase of Development Rights program, and spoke in support of the school bond referendum, however, spoke in opposition to the proposed location of a new high school on Route 605.

No one else spoke. The public hearing was closed.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:37 P.M. to reconvene on March 16, 2005.

I hereby certify that this is a true and exact record of actions taken by the Fauquier County Board of Supervisors on March 15, 2005.

Paul S. McCulla
Clerk to the Board of Supervisors